

ACTS

A CHANGE OF PLANS DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

BIG IDEA: When you truly meet with God, He changes your life.

Observations from the text:

Jesus meets you where you are (vs. 1-9)

Jesus uses the unlikeliest of people (vs. 10-15)

Jesus uses your suffering for His glory (vs. 16-19a)

START THINKING. Ask this question to get your LifeGroup thinking.

- In what ways are Christians treated differently in Acts 9 than they are today?

How do people recognize that you are a follower of Jesus?

START TALKING. Ask these questions to get your LifeGroup talking.

- How did God meet Saul where he was spiritually? How does God meet you where you are spiritually?
- How did God meet Saul where he was physically? How does God meet you where you are physically?

Read Acts 9:10-15

- How did God use Ananias?
- How did God use Saul (later Paul)?

- How did God use a tax collector named Matthew (look at Matthew 9:9)?
- How can God use you and this LifeGroup?

Read Acts 9:16

- Often times we are scared of change because it can cause problems, raise fears, and test our faith. However, the Bible teaches we should embrace trials as a chance to mature in our faith and become like Jesus (James 1:2-4). When God invades our lives and makes changes, it is for good

Read 2 Corinthians 11:16-33

- Paul suffered greatly for the Lord. How did Paul use this suffering for God's glory?

START SHARING. Ask this question to get your LifeGroup sharing.

- How has God changed your life recently? How can God bring change to this LifeGroup?

START PRAYING.

Close your time in prayer.